

Items for Prayer

Issues, Events and People to remember in your prayers

Monday. Pray for the three Bible translations being worked on in Senegal to be published in audio and book formats, for safe arrival in the language area and to be well received. Pray for the Morrissey family who plan a visit to the UK in the summer.

Tuesday. Pray for the Toddler group who meet tomorrow, for strength for Nicky and her team, for time to chat with the parents. Thank the Lord for JaM Club on Thursdays. Pray for strength for Angeline and for all the needed helpers, for safety for the "Walking Bus" from the school to the church.

Wednesday. Pray for those unwell or in any kind of need: Lyn Hill, Dodie Waterhouse, Heather Watters (operation on Thursday), Alan Whitfield, Eileen Wirth, Val Unwin, Colin and Jennie Winser.

Thursday. Lucy, our Interserve partner in Asia, is grateful for grants that have come through for both BLISS and LaBBS courses. Pray for Lucy developing good relationships with near neighbours in her yard.

Friday. Today, the UK leaves the European Union! Pray for the next 11 months of negotiations, that all will go smoothly and amicably and be finalised by 31st December.

Saturday. Pray for Tom Potter as he has taken on the role of National Director for Action International Philippines. Thank the Lord for the land donated so Pag-asa can build a new larger school facility, and pray for the funds needed to come in.

*Please support in prayer service leaders and preachers on

Notices

The Prayer Unlimited season has started. This is a very positive time for those who come. Please see the Prayer Unlimited flyers on the Information Desk for more details of this exciting and engaging series which carries on until Easter.

A new Alpha Course has started. Alpha is designed for people who have questions about life and faith to be able to explore these in a relaxed and informal setting. Maybe there's someone you know who would like to join the course. Why not invite them along this Wednesday at 7.30pm?

HELP!

We love to keep our church a safe and welcoming place. To do that, we need many helpers. Naturally, over time, circumstances change and we need to revise our Welcome Teams and Cleaning Teams. Please pray about whether you could join one of those teams and add your name to the sign-up sheet. If you're already on a team ... thank you, we still need you! Please talk to Bev or Chris for details.

To contact our new Treasurer, David White, about finance matters, please use the email address finance@ccwsm.org.uk. Thank you.

The latest newsletter from The Potters is now available from the Missions Board near the main door of church. Please collect your copy!

The latest edition of Manna Magazine is out now. This edition focusses on Caring for Creation and includes comments from our very own Rev David Agassiz.

A community event called Redeeming Our Communities will take place on Monday 3rd February at St Paul's church starting at 7pm. See the ROC poster for more details. The meeting will bring together different community agencies with a view to discussing how best to work together.

Safeguarding training. There will be a training session on Monday 23rd March from 6.30-8.30pm in the Spire Centre. This is the new Safeguarding Foundation training (previously known as C1) for those who hold a DBS certificate and need to do a training session for the first time or to renew (training should be renewed every 3 years). If you have any questions, please see Anne Jones.

THANK YOU

Thank you to the Treasurer and everyone on the Finance Team who look after our finances so diligently.
